ABSTRACT

This directory is intended to help teaching volunteers find jobs in New York State. The types of programs provided by the agencies listed include adult basic education, bilingual education, migrant education, and ghetto teaching. Information is given about certification and licensing requirements in New York State and New York City, as well as about free schools. The directory listing is arranged by city under the following headings: 1) public and private schools and adult education centers with the listings for New York City subdivided into public, private and parochial, board of education agencies, and other agencies and businesses; 2) Boards of Cooperative Educational Services and District Superintendents of Schools; 3) Title III centers (Regional Supplementary Educational Centers); 4) some colleges and universities; 5) some New York State government agencies; and 6) community action agencies. Sources for additional information and publications are given. (MBM)

INTRODUCTION

We hope this directory will help some Volunteers with a proven interest and background in human service to find jobs...and that it will help some schools and students to find motivated teachers with cross-cultural understanding and cross-disciplinary experience. It will be fine if anyone else is helped too.

The material consists mainly of a selected list of schools and agencies which: (a) tell us they want Volunteers to apply to them for jobs; and/or (b) operate programs we think Volunteers might be interested in--programs which need and can benefit from a Volunteer's experience...adult basic education, bilingual education, migrant education, ghetto teaching, etc.

The rough map on the cover is drawn to show major postal zip code and telephone code breakdowns for use in locating addresses in the directory. You should apply for employment directly to the schools and agencies listed. However, in some cases the agencies might be better prepared to give helpful information than jobs. For example, State agencies might provide data on programs they support across the State; or regional Title III centers with small staff would know about innovative educational programs in their areas.

It is generally wise to apply to a number of places and to send along a copy of your resume. An excellent publication to obtain is the "Guide to Preparing a Resume," available free from the New York State Employment Service, 444 Madison Avenue, New York City or 194 Washington Avenue, Albany. Remember to include information about your teacher certification status or qualifications in your resume. If you are not certified, write to Volunteers in Public Service for applications. An evaluation of your qualifications can help you.

To supplement this directory, we maintain random lists of current job openings.

We wish you the best.

SOME INFORMATION ABOUT CERTIFICATION IN NEW YORK STATE...

Certification (with the exception of New York City, which requires additional examinations) may be achieved through three methods: (a) Completion of an approved program. A listing of institutions offering approved programs in New York State may be obtained from the Division of Teacher Education and Certification, the State Education Department; (b) Individual evaluation of preparation and experience. A candidate may submit an application and transcripts to the Division of Teacher Education and Certification. A determination of what is necessary to gain certification will be made and completion of the studies and/or experience will permit the issuance of a fee request preparatory to awarding certification; or (c) Certification through reciprocity. New York State has reciprocal agreements with a number of states for certification of teachers and other professionals in education. To obtain New York State certification under the reciprocity agreement, the candidate must submit an application for certification to the Division of Teacher Education and Certification. The Division then corresponds with the certifying officer of the originating member state. Upon verification from the originating state, the Division then issues the appropriate New York State certificate.

Application of Volunteer Teaching Experience (Peace Corps)

Teacher certification requirements may be adjusted to reflect appropriate Peace Corps teacher training and experience. Individuals provisionally certified to teach in New York State before entering the Peace Corps may apply for an extension of this certificate of up to two years to cover the duration of Peace Corps service. If not certified, a Volunteer may apply for certification while still abroad. Twelve semester hours of blanket credit in professional education and for practical experience in comparative education and a minimum of one full year of teaching experience may be waived to satisfy the required student teaching experience. It is expected that the proposed Action Volunteer teacher program will continue to meet requirements for certification adjustment as noted above.

Certification Through College Proficiency Examinations

An applicant for a teaching certificate may be advised by the Division of Teacher Education and Certification to obtain certification by performing satisfactorily an appropriate College Proficiency Examination administered by the State Education Department. The College Proficiency Examinations may be used to obtain certification by the person with or without a Baccalaureate seeking either provisional or permanent certification. These examinations are described in the Department publication, "The New York College Proficiency Examination Program," which may be obtained from the College Proficiency Examination Program, State Education Department, Albany. Information about the proposed External Degree program of the Department will be available also from the office.

Employment of Uncertified Teachers

An uncertified teacher may be employed under the following circumstances: (a) when no certified and qualified teacher is available, and (b) when the uncertified teacher has submitted an application to the Commissioner for certification, and has been notified of his uncompleted requirements for certification, or (c) in the case of re-employment for a succeeding year, the uncertified teacher must have completed at least six semester hours of work toward certification prior to re-employment. The superintendent must show that he cannot find a certified and qualified teacher.

Application Procedure

When applying for State certification, you must submit to the Division of Teacher Education and Certification (or to Volunteers in Public Service) the following: (a) official college transcripts (seal embossed); (b) completed certification application (please request proper forms); (c) for Peace Corps Volunteers only, a copy of your description of service describing Peace Corps teacher training and experience. Due to limited staff, the burden of follow-up rests with you. Please let us know if you haven't received notice of certification in a reasonable amount of time.

NEW YORK CITY LICENSING PROCEDURES

Special licensing examinations are required in New York City. Under new legislation providing for decentralization of schools, community school districts were formed which have eased licensing procedures. Following are pertinent excerpts from a letter to job applicants by Gerald Brooks, Director of the Bureau of Educational Staff Recruitment:

> "The New York State Education Law provides an alternate route to teacher licensure through use of the National Teacher Examination for service in low reading score elementary and junior high schools.
> "Applicants must:
> --meet appropriate New York State provisional teacher certification requirements
> --achieve a satisfactory score on the National Teacher Examination
> --meet medical standards set by the Chancellor of the New York City schools
> --present a satisfactory personal background record
> "This office is providing a nationwide recruitment service for eligible schools and will refer qualified candidates to community school districts. Final decisions regarding employment through this procedure will be made at the community school board level..."

Write for application blanks to:

Educational Testing Service
Box 911
Princeton, New Jersey

(Arrange to have test scores sent to: Office of Personnel, Registry Unit, 65 Court Street - Room 600, Brooklyn, New York 11201.) During the four years prior to the September following application a candidate must have taken the NTE and achieved at least one of the following minimum scores:

Commons	508
Teaching Area	535
Composite	1000

CANDIDATES WILL BE REFERRED TO COMMUNITY SCHOOL DISTRICTS WHO WILL MAKE DECISIONS REGARDING EMPLOYMENT.

Teacher Drop-Out Center

BOX 521
AMHERST, MASS. 01002

" We are offering our services as a matrimonial agency, matching up a school that's looking for a creative, innovative, deeply-committed-to-kids kind of teacher: the one who actualizes in the classroom an authentic faith in young people-match that school with a teacher who has a style and needs to actualize that style: who needs to feel that the kids are the center of education, not the maintenance of the institution; one who suffers depressions when he feels himself regarded as merely another body...

"We have found and are finding schools around the country which fulfill the spirit and substance of a place in which to live and grow happily. Our list is long--the implications of which are heart-warming. We're open to inquiries...So far we have helped and are helping hundreds of people get in touch with and find positions in schools. We're here. Write to us and let us know about yourself and what you need; tell us where you're at and where you're at about education. We'll listen attentively and then filter our information for you.."

Note from the Pacific Day School, 40 Shell Road, Mill Valley, Ca. 94960. We receive many fine letters and teacher applications and requests for information and questionnaires without return postage. We can't afford to answer these. Could people please enclose return postage when contacting free schools? I am sure other schools have this problem too. Hate to leave so many people unanswered – doesn't feel good.

THE TEACHER PAPER

who is The TEACHER PAPER?

d. Fred Staab, a high school teacher, and his wife, Robin, a primary school teacher.

why is The TEACHER PAPER?

d. because nearly all education magazines are written by people outside the classroom and are dull, conventional, full of jargon, and tell it the way they're spozed to see it instead of the way it is.

where is The TEACHER PAPER?

d. 3923 SE Main Street, in Portland, Oregon 97214

reprints of TP's "Guerilla Manual for underground teachers" are thirty-five cents each or twenty cents each for orders of fifty or more.

(LNS)-The amazing discovery that the American public school system is "intolerable, oppressive and joyless" was front page news recently in the New York Times.

It took $300,000 and three and a half years for a Carnegie Corporation commission to figure out what every kid has known since kindergarten--"the most important characteristic the schools share in common is a preoccupation with order and control."

"It is not the children who are disruptive, it is the formal classroom that is disruptive--of childhood itself."

ALTERNATIVE SERVICE (C.O.) AND NEW SCHOOLS Non-profit schools can qualify as alternate service employers. Application by a school is made to the State Director of Selective Service. They will determine whether a school qualifies. Identical information is then filed at the local draft board of any man who wishes to perform his alternate service with the free school. Final decision on an acceptable service is made for each CO by his own board. (News Schools Exchange)

GRADUATE INTERNSHIPS. To gain admittance to a teacher intern program in a college or university, students generally but not always have completed a minimum of education credits. Interns complete a teacher training program while working as salaried teacher interns in a school. Contact the Dean of the School of Education of individual colleges for further information. In the New York City Board of Education, contact Mrs. Helen McGuire, Teacher Education Office, 65 Court Street, Brooklyn, New York 11201.

BROOKLYN COLLEGE OF THE CITY UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK has expressed special interest in Peace Corps returnees for its intern program, since their work is especially good preparation for fulfilling the teaching role in inner cities. The program as operated in the past is a 48 credit master's degree plan with a full year of work in urban school including a paid internship. Write to: Professor Schwartz, Coordinator Special Program for College Graduates, Brooklyn College, Department of Education, Brooklyn, New York 11210.
